ORDERS FOR WEDNESDAY,

APRIL 27, 2005

Mr. FRIST. I ask unanimous consent that when the Senate completes its business today, it stand in adjournment until 9:30 a.m. on Wednesday, April 27. I further ask that following the prayer and the pledge, the morning hour be deemed expired, the Journal of proceedings be approved to date, the time for the two leaders be reserved, and the Senate then proceed to a period for morning business for up to 120 minutes, with the first 30 minutes under the control of the majority leader or his designee, the next 60 minutes under the control of Senator BIDEN or his designee, and the final 30 minutes under the control of the majority leader or his designee; provided that following morning business the Senate resume consideration of H.R. 3, the highway bill.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, it is so ordered.

PROGRAM

Mr. FRIST. Mr. President, tomorrow following morning business, the Senate will resume consideration of the highway bill. We will continue the amending process tomorrow. The chairman and ranking member will be here to work through amendments that are offered. Rollcall votes are expected throughout the day in relation to the amendments.

I also remind my colleagues that we have several other important matters to address before adjourning for next week's recess. We hope to receive conference reports to both the budget resolution and supplemental appropriations bill. In addition, several nominations are available for floor consideration, and we expect to move forward with those this week as well.

Again, we have a lot of work to do this week. Senators should expect busy days with rollcall votes throughout the week.

ADJOURNMENT UNTIL 9:30 A.M.
TOMORROW

Mr. FRIST. If there is no further business to come before the Senate, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate stand in adjournment under the previous order.

There being no objection, the Senate, at 7:34 p.m., adjourned until Wednesday, April 27, 2005, at 9:30 a.m.
